

Embellishments - October 2025

Welcome to Halloween, Blue Jays Playoff season and colourful autumn days. Get ready for a busy Guild month in November as we showcase our talents with our auction.

Dates to Remember:

Keep these dates in your calendar:

- Nov 4: Evening Edge at College of the North Atlantic, Room C209 7-9PM
- Nov 16: EAC Speaker Series – register online
- Nov 20: Day Edge at 56 Lanse Aux Meadows Crescent, 10AM-3PM
- Nov 21-25: Auction
- Nov 25: Regular Meeting
- Dec 10: Holiday Dinner

Auction: Thanks to all our stitchers who have donated pieces, gift cards and money. All that hard work will be auctioned off next month through an online auction at Bartlett Auction House.

You must register at website to bid so go to the website a few days before the auction and get your account set up.

Kitty Drake and her team will need lots of help to get the preview down there, set up, taken down and someone there for the two days of preview. Please see Kitty at the meeting to sign up for a few hours. Here are some of the ways you can help.

- Nov 20-21: Set -up – take items from Kitty's to Atlantic Place and get it hung up or placed on tables.
- Nov 22-23: Preview – we need at least two people per hour, from 10-5, to be on hand to greet visitors and answer questions.
- Nov 24: Auction closes and take down of the show.
- Nov 25: Pick up – help the successful bidders get their treasures.

Holiday Dinner: Jewel will announce the location and details of the holiday dinner at the meeting. The date is set for Wednesday, Dec 10.

Programs: Join Gillian as she unveils our Christmas ornament.

Survey: KJ will be leading us in a survey of techniques that members would like the guild to pursue over the next few years. For any member who cannot attend the October meeting, please reach out to Jewel via email (jewelcousens@gmail.com) and I will record your results.

Membership: Most people who were due to renew for Nov 1 have done so but if not, then please see Laura at the meeting.
